The first part of the history of the United States is the period of discovery and settlement. The second part is the period of the American Revolution and the formation of the Constitution. The third part is the period of the early republic and the expansion of the United States. The fourth part is the period of the Civil War and Reconstruction. The fifth part is the period of the Gilded Age and the Progressive Era. The sixth part is the period of the World Wars and the New Deal. The seventh part is the period of the Cold War and the Vietnam War. The eighth part is the period of the 1960s and the 1970s. The ninth part is the period of the 1980s and the 1990s. The tenth part is the period of the 2000s and the 2010s.

The history of the United States is a story of a young nation that grew from a small group of settlers on the eastern coast to a vast empire that spans across two continents. The story is one of struggle and triumph, of hope and despair. It is a story that has shaped the world and continues to shape it today. The United States has been a land of opportunity and a land of freedom. It has been a land where people have come from all over the world to seek a better life. It has been a land where people have fought for their rights and for their freedom. It has been a land where people have built a great nation.
